JAMES HALLIDAY TASTING NOTES

The James Brazill Clare Valley Shiraz 2007 Gains additional divine approval having been picked on St Patrick's Day (Mar 17), every bit as propitious as the biodynamicacists' fruit day, for this is a most attractive medium-bodied wine; very supple (not normally a Clare Valley feature) and has good length. Screwcap. 15% alc. Rating 94 Drink 2022 $30 Date Tasted Feb 10

Teresa Clare Valley Riesling 2009 Light straw-green; a clean but as yet reticent bouquet, the apple nuances gaining traction on the energetic palate where lime/citrus joins the dalliance and provides a juicy finish. Could develop very well indeed. Screwcap. 11.8% alc. Rating 92 Drink 2019 $25 Date Tasted Feb 10
